

Vermont Weavers Guild Studio Tours 2022 - 2023

Greetings to all Guild members. We hope this finds you and yours healthy.

We are using the same set of open-ended prompts from the past.

- Respond to four or five prompts or create your own narrative.
- Add three or four photographs.
- Put your responses and photographs into a Word document, save it as a PDF.
- Indicate clearly whether you want your tour posted in the “Members Only” section of the website or posted on the “Home” page of the website.
- Send it to Kathy or Layne who will send it on to get it posted to the website.

LaynesGardenDesign@mac.com or kacarvey@gmail.com

Kathy Carvey and Layne Tharp

1. Basic information

- Name (Members Only section posting)
- Location (Members Only section posting)
- Length of Vermont Weavers Guild membership (Members Only section posting)
- Other Guild memberships (Members Only section posting)

2. Respond to three or four of the following prompts:

- Describe your path to weaving including significant teachers, mentors, classes, certifications, study groups, etc.
- Describe your “studio”.
- Describe your favorite weaving materials, weave structures, suppliers, and/or weaving equipment.
- Describe awards or recognitions you have received. (Members Only section posting)
- Describe how the Vermont Weavers Guild has supported your weaving.
- Describe how your weaving is inspired.
- Describe something you really like about weaving and/or something you wish you could avoid.
- Describe how you share weaving with others.
- Share insights you have gained from weaving.
- Describe other crafts you enjoy.

3. Describe what are you looking forward to in 2023. (Members Only section posting)

4. Include 3-4 photographs to illustrate your tour.